

A QUICK GUIDE

TO TNB THEATRE SCHOOL'S COVID-19 OPERATIONAL PLAN

FALL 2020

We've outlined some of the key things to know as you prepare for camp but we encourage you to read our full school policies:

www.tnb.nb.ca/policies as well as our COVID-19 Operational Plan.

ARRIVAL AND SCREENING

- Clear rules will be posted on the door to allow and prohibit entry. We will post signage at the entrance advising of the pre-screening process.
- Theatre school staff will be pre-screened for symptoms through the Pre-Screening questionnaire and temperature checks.
- Students and parents will be required to fill out a pre-screening questionnaire before the first class as well as document stating that they will be responsible for self-monitoring for COVID-19 symptoms at home.
- Parents/Guardians are not permitted in the building. *Parents/Guardians of Playtime Theatre students will be permitted inside the first week of classes to drop students off. However, parents entering our building must be wearing a mask.
- Community masks are required for all instructors and students when entering and exiting the building. Once in the rehearsal space, students may remove their masks.

- Community masks are required for all instructors and students when entering and exiting the building. Once in the rehearsal space, students may remove their masks.
- Upon entering the building/studio, students will sanitize and/or wash their hands. Hand sanitizer stations are set up outside the rehearsal hall and the Open Space Theatre.
- Staff will remind students of protocols for sneezing, hand washing, not touching face, etc.

As per regulation, class sizes will be small and limited to 10 to 15 students depending on the program.

PICK UP

- Students will be picked up outside and supervised by an instructor or teaching assistant.
- Parents will not be permitted to wait in the lobby/boardroom during classes.

CLEANING SCHEDULE

- All surfaces including door knobs, faucets, and chairs will be wiped with disinfectant wipes in between each class.

REFUND POLICY

- Should the Government of New Brunswick require us to close our facility due to COVID-19, classes will switch immediately to online learning. Refunds will not be issued due to government closure.
