SUMMER PROGRAMS 2021

Playtime

Age 5-7

Through theatre games, storytelling, and movement, students will explore and expand their creativity, imagination and confidence.

Junior Acting

Grades 3-5

Students receive introductory training in acting, voice and movement as they embark on a weeklong acting adventure that focuses on storytelling, improvisation, character creation and collaboration.

Junior Musical Theatre 1 & 2

Grades 3-5

Students will receive introductory training in music, voice, dance and acting through games, workshops, and delving into songs and scenes from their favourite musicals.

Intermediate & Senior Acting

Grades 6-12

Focusing on acting training and performance, students will study acting theory, voice work, and movement. Students will also take workshops in various different performance styles such as pantomime, improvisation, puppetry, and physical theatre. These skills will be applied through monologue and scene studies, and original theatre creations led by the students.

Intermediate Musical Theatre

Grades 6-8

Students' acting, voice and dance skills will be challenged and expanded as they work with a music director, choreographer and acting coach through workshops, games, scene studies and exploring the choreography and music of popular musicals.
