

Stephen Graham Bird Award

Acting, Directing, Playwriting

The Stephen Graham Bird Award is designed to recognize and encourage New Brunswick students who have demonstrated exceptional talent and potential, and who are pursuing a career in the theatre. The Stephen Graham Bird Award is for full-time study.

Objectives

- To assist New Brunswick students who intend to pursue, or are presently pursuing, a career in theatre as a professional.
- To increase the number of professional theatre artists in New Brunswick.
- To encourage the development of New Brunswick talent in theatre arts.

Eligibility

To be eligible for consideration an applicant must intend to pursue, or be currently pursuing, full-time studies at a recognized institution, at an undergraduate level or professional training program, for the purpose of pursuing a career as a professional theatre artist.

This career may be in acting, in directing, or in playwriting.

Only New Brunswick residents are eligible to receive funding. A resident is defined as a Canadian citizen or permanent resident who has resided in New Brunswick for at least one year immediately preceding the application deadline.

Level of Funding

One award in the amount of $3,000 will be awarded per year. An individual may receive up to a maximum of 4 awards, which must be applied for annually.

The award will be paid as follows:

70% of the total will be sent to upon receipt by the Theatre New Brunswick Foundation of official confirmation of enrollment, which should be sent directly to the Theatre New Brunswick Foundation by the educational institution. The remaining 30% will be sent in the second term, only after the Theatre New Brunswick Foundation has received an official document from the institution that you are attending, confirming you are continuing the studies, as proposed in your application, for the second term.

Please note that it is the student's responsibility to contact the educational institution in order to have them send confirmation of enrollment directly to the Theatre New Brunswick Foundation.

Applicants who do not complete the studies for which the award was given will be required to reimburse a portion, or the total, of the amount received. The amount to be reimbursed will be determined by the Theatre New Brunswick Foundation.
